

Chardon woman sues over attack

A Chardon woman who claims she was attacked in a Montville Township lounge and restaurant is suing the establishment and her alleged attacker for $50,000.

Rebecca J. Page, 25, 9661 Brown Road, Lot 15, filed suit Thursday in Geauga County Common Pleas Court against Peggy Weaver, 15425 Rock Creek Road, Chardon; Sjana's Lounge & Steakhouse, 17585 G.A.R. Highway; and Bar Barron Lounge & Night Club Inc. statutory agent John Simak, 11388 Madison Road, Huntsburg Township.

Page claims that Weaver hit her over the head with a beer bottle and bit her finger while the two were in the lounge on Oct. 23, 1992, the suit says. Her lawyer, Jane E. Clapp of Cleveland, said Page suffered a concussion and stitches in her finger.

The suit also alleges that the bar broke the law by serving alcohol to Peggy Weaver, who was allegedly intoxicated at the time of the altercation, the suit says.
